

Dear Parishioners,

On this first Sunday of June, we celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi remembering the great gift of the Real Presence of Jesus in the Sacrament of the Holy Eucharist. We know as Catholics that His Eucharistic Presence is the way that we most personally meet Him in this life and whereby we have the most personal relationship with Him that is possible. So, on this Feast let us have grateful hearts for Jesus always being with us in the Blessed Sacrament. It is fitting, too, that we honor our eighth graders who have been altar servers for us on this feast day as we thank them for having offered themselves these last four years to serve at Mass. We pray for them and wish them the best as they move on to high school.

During the month of June I will be away from the parish several times due to the other responsibilities that I have been given by the Archbishop. From June 5-9, as the national chaplain for the Catholic Medical Association, I will be in Chicago for their mid-year board meeting. Then, due to my responsibility as the director for continuing formation for priests in the Archdiocese, I will have to be up in Schuyler, NE at the St. Benedict Center for two events: from June 11-13 for a Good Leaders, Good Shepherds workshop and from June 24-28 for the first summer priest retreat. Also, since I have not taken all of the vacation time permitted for archdiocesan priests (up to four weeks) for the period of July 2012 to June 2013, I will be on vacation from June 14-21. Benedictine priests from Mt. Michael Abby and Fr. Chuck Swanson will be here for Masses, though for a few of the weekdays there will be a Communion Service done by Deacon Dave Christensen since no priests were available to offer Mass.

Have a blessed and grace-filled week.
God bless,
Fr. Gutowski

Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Gen 14:18-20

Ps 110:1-4

1 Cor 11:23-26

Luke 9:11b-17

"Love is like five loaves and two fish, always too little until you start giving it away." This is the message inscribed at a shrine near the northern end of the Sea of Galilee, built where Jesus multiplied a small amount of food to provide for the needs of everyone in the large crowd who had come to see him.

In front of the altar is a Byzantine mosaic of the loaves and fish, dating about 480 A.D. It's next to the rock upon which Jesus blessed the food. However, in the mosaic you can see only four loaves, not five. Why?

The fifth loaf is the bread of the Eucharist in which Jesus comes to us in Holy Communion at every Mass.

The Eucharist is more than the True Presence of Jesus. It's more than a communion with the Body of Christ that's become the whole Church community. It's a miracle of multiplication. Whatever we lack from God, it comes to us in Jesus through the Holy Spirit, and when we participate in the Eucharistic celebration of Mass, we can (and should!) ask Jesus to multiply our insufficiencies into an abundance.

We can trust that he will give us all that we need, at the perfect time in whatever way we're able to receive it, albeit often through a growth process.

Do you have enough love in your life? Most of us would say no, because there is no one – except God – who is capable of giving us all the love that we need: No one, regardless of how close to us they are, regardless of how loyal and trustworthy, regardless of how close to Christ they are.

The Eucharist is our earthly, direct connection to all the perfect love of God. The reason we don't feel the fullness of that love is because we don't fully understand how to unite ourselves to the Eucharist. To receive the life-changing impact of the Eucharist fully, be the Eucharist fully. The Eucharist is love given in sacrifice for the sake of others. If you're not receiving enough love, give more love – be the love you want to receive. Be Eucharist for others.

Questions for Personal Reflection:

Is God's love sufficiently filling in the gaps where others don't love you enough? Take your needs to the Eucharist; ask the Holy Spirit to show you how to give more love instead of focusing on getting more, then ask Jesus to multiply the love that you give so that it's more than enough for your needs as well as the needs of others.

Questions for Family & Community Faith Sharing:

Describe an experience of love being multiplied. How does this prove: "Love is like five loaves and two fish, always too little until you start giving it away"?
