MEET OUR PASTOR

Fr. Michael Gutsell was appointed pastor of St. Cecilia parish and rector of Saint Cecilia Cathedral on June 15, 2005. He is the twenty-third pastor in the history of the parish and the tenth rector of the Cathedral.

Fr. Gutsell was born in Kansas City, Missouri and he came to Omaha in 1961 as an eighth grader in Blessed Sacrament Parish on North 30th St. in Omaha. He has five sisters and four brothers.

Six years of seminary (four years of high school and two years of college) were taken at Saint John Vianney Minor Seminary, which became Mount Michael School after his departure. The final years of college and four years of theology took place in St. Paul, Minnesota. Fr. Gutsell was ordained at Saint Cecilia Cathedral on May 25, 1974 with eight other classmates.

Fr. Gutsell served in two parishes and, as part of his second parish assignment, taught full time for four of the seven years at Columbus Scotus Central Catholic High School in Columbus, Ne. Two years of Canon Law studies at the Catholic University of America, Washington, resulted in a License in Canon Law and an assignment to the Archdiocese Marriage Tribunal. He served full time in the Tribunal from 1983 until 1994 when he was appointed Chancellor of the Archdiocese by Archbishop Elden F. Curtiss. In 1998, in addition to the duties of Chancellor, Fr. Gutsell was appointed Moderator of the Curia (Chief of Staff among the Directors of the Archdiocesan departments and agencies). In 2003, Fr. Gutsell, retaining the position of Moderator of the Curia, was named pastor of Saint John the Baptist parish in Fort Calhoun, Ne.

In 2005 he completed his service at the Chancery and began duties at the Cathedral. He serves as a Defender to the Board in the first Instance Marriage Tribunal in the Archdiocese.
