SEVEN TO BECOME SAINTS

On Sunday, October 21, Pope Benedict XVI will canonize seven new saints, including two from the United States. Blessed Kateri Tekakwitha and Blessed Marianne Cope will both be inscribed in the Roman Martyrology as saints. While the other five saints are also holy people to be recognized, the two from North America are the ones closest to us. Both lived in New York state, but each of them travelled from their home for different reasons in pursuit of the faith. Let us think about them.
