VOLUNTEER NEEDED !!

GREETINGS TO AL,

We would like to announce the upcoming 2015 St. Joseph Nativity Display event. Hopefully most of you remember the event from last year. For those who weren't here or don't remember, the event offers a chance for all to come and see hundreds of Nativity Displays in the Social Hall. In addition there will be a bake sale, food prepared by our Knights, and a gift shop for young and those a little less young. Last year this event provided a good deal of help to those in need in our Springfield community. It also added to the RE Building Fund. We are hopeful we can at least match last year's success if not better it. Obviously this event can't be a success without a good deal of help. We will need people to help with setup, greeting, takedown, planning, staffing tables, and counting after the event. The days we will need help are the day after Thanksgiving (November 27th) through Sunday November 29th. There will be shifts available for signup. No one will be asked to stay the whole day. The signup sheets will be found in the entry way. Children can be of help with this as well. Sherry tells me the children can use this as their service hours.

We will also need people to be on a committee for the event. Those who were on the committee last year will be given first priority to volunteer again. We plan on having a meeting around the first part of November. At that time we will ask for committee members to help with finding cash boxes, making signs, and other tasks. If you are interested please contact Deacon Dave or Linda.

If you can't help please consider displaying your Nativity sets so others may enjoy them. The set(s) would need to be set up on the 27th and removed on the 30th.

Other details will be shared as they become available. We will be in the entrance area after Mass to answer any questions you may have. Please consider helping with this worthwhile event. Those in need will be happy you listened to your heart and helped.

God bless.

Deacon Dave and Linda
