TYPHOON HAIVAN

You have probably heard the news stories about Super Typhoon Haiyan's devastating landfall in the Philippines over the weekend. Thousands have died already, tens of thousands have lost their homes, and hundreds of thousands have been evacuated. Catholic Relief Services (CRS) is there already. They have been there since an earthquake hit the region just months ago. We are taking up a special collection for Typhoon Haiyan Relief this weekend, and we encourage parishioners to start donating to CRS today. The Filipino people desperately need our help. Give to CRS by visiting their website CRS.org or by sending donations to the Chancery Offices.
