THE PRIESTS

CUES and St. Augustine Indian Mission are thrilled to announce that THE PRIESTS are coming to Omaha for a Benefit Concert. The Priests are a Musical Trio of Roman Catholic Priests from Northern Ireland. They were nominated for internationally-acclaimed Classical Brit Awards for 'Best Classical Album of the Year' in 2009, 2010 and 2011.

This concert will benefit CUES and St. Augustine Indian Mission. CUES supports three inner-city mission schools, Sacred Heart, All Saints and Holy Name. They provide quality education and programming for children with the hopes of transforming lives and building a sustainable and successful future.

St. Augustine Indian Mission is a K-8 Catholic school located on the Winnebago Indian Reservation in northeast Nebraska, serving children from both the Omaha and Winnebago Indian Tribes. They strive to prepare students for their higher education by assisting them to become respectful of life, self-directed, and positive contributors to their community.

The concert is Monday, November 28 @ 7:00 at the Holland Performing Arts Center. For tickets, please call The Holland at 402-345-0606 or www.ticketomaha.com.

CHRISTMAS MINISTERS

A schedule with the Christmas masses is on the credenza in the church entry. If you can help as a Lector, an EMHC or a server for any of the masses, please sign up as soon as possible.

Be a Blood Donor

A reminder that the next Springfield Blood Drive is scheduled for Sunday Dec. 11th at the Fire Hall from 8:00 A.M to 1:00 P.M. In the season of giving, what better gift could we give then a unit of blood to help save someone's life. Contact me at 402-253-8301 to book an appointment or go online. Thanks Ralph Meister Cord.

FROM CATHOLIC CHARITIES

As we prepare to enter this Advent season, we at Catholic Charities are grateful for the generosity and giving spirit of all of our partner parishes in 2016. Whether you helped with a food drive, gave money to our Hunger Campaign or donated your time to one of our events or programs, know that you have shared God's mercy with our most vulnerable neighbors. During this special time of year – of the coming of our savior, Christ the Lord – as we celebrate the birth of Hope – I pray that, as you have given the gift of hope to so many this year, you may know hope and countless blessings in your life. Please prayerfully consider giving to our 2016 annual appeal, and visit comaha.org to donate.

May we continue to work together to build God's kingdom among all of us.

John J. Griffith, Executive Director
Catholic Charities of Omaha
