RCIA is a pathway for those who have never been baptized (catechumens) but seek baptism in the Catholic Faith. It is also those already baptized (candidates) in another Christian faith who seek a profession of Faith in full communion with the Catholic Faith. We are organizing a class to begin on Wednesday evenings starting in September of 2018 and will end at the Easter Vigil in 2019. If you or someone you know have thought about the possibility of formally joining the Catholic Church please contact Deacon Terry Ficenecc at 402-677-5643 or tjficenecc@archomaha.org to inquire and get information.

For those of you who are parishioners we will need volunteers to act as sponsors for the inquirers. As active, practicing Catholics you will “walk” with the catechumens to assist them in class sessions and support their development in the Faith. Also, any Catholic parishioner who simply wishes to learn more about the Faith that you already participate in are free to come along for the “walk” experience.

We are asking the women of our parish to procure raffle items for the October 27 Soup Supper. These include gift cards or actual items. If you are friendly with a local business and would like to ask them for a donation, please take a procurement letter and donor form from the Ladies Guild mailbox by the offices. The business may need the letter for tax purposes, and the Guild would like the donor form filled out and returned to them. This is our biggest fundraiser of the year, so we appreciate any donations. Donations can be given to Dorothy Foged (402-253-2633) or Julie Richards (402-881-2407 or juttrichaz@aol.com.) Contact Julie if you have questions.

If you are in need of prayers or want to join our prayer chain, contact Dorothy or Julie at the phone numbers above.

Our next meeting will be August 13th at 7:00pm in the RE Center.
