RCIA is a pathway for those who have never been baptized (catechumens) but seek baptism in the Catholic Faith. It is also those already baptized (candidates) in another Christian faith who seek a profession of Faith in full communion with the Catholic Faith. We are organizing a class to begin on Wednesday evenings starting in September of 2018 and will end at the Easter Vigil in 2019. If you or someone you know have thought about the possibility of formally joining the Catholic Church please contact Deacon Terry Ficencic at 402-677-5643 or tjficencic@archomaha.org to inquire and get information.

For those of you who are parishioners we will need volunteers to act as sponsors for the inquirers. As active, practicing Catholics you will “walk” with the catechumens to assist them in class sessions and support their development in the Faith. Also, any Catholic parishioner who simply wishes to learn more about the Faith that you already participate in are free to come along for the “walk” experience.

The Ladies Guild will meet tomorrow, August 13th, at 7:00PM in the RE Center. We will begin planning for the October Soup Supper and Raffle. If you have raffle donations, please bring them to the meeting unless they are very large. Then contact Dorothy Foged 402-253-2633 or Julie Richards 402-881-2407.

Remember to add your raffle donations to signupgenius.com by searching "St Joseph's Ladies Guild Soup Supper Donations." We also have a sign up for August rosaries, which is a great way to pray together yet apart. To sign up, please search "St Joseph's Ladies Guild Thirty-One Days of Rosaries for Preparation."
