NEW PARISH WEBSITE

A beautiful new parish website has been created by Irina and John Harrington. It can be accessed by going to stjosef.com. Please take time to look at this website. It contains all bulletins, anything new happening in our parish, upcoming events by all the various groups, the parish calendar as well as the RE calendar, and blogs by Father. If you are looking to rent the parish hall you can browse the parish calendar to see what dates are open. New parishioners can register online as well as registrations for RE, Totus Tuus, Fair help and most other activities. The EMHC, Lector and Server schedules are now available. It is a continuous work in progress and you should bookmark it so you can access it quickly to know the latest happening, pictures of events and so much more. We will try to update you on new things on the site. We would also like your feedback and suggestions. They can be emailed to Sharon VanTassell's email address. If you have any questions, please contact Sharon, Sherry Huntwork or Fr. Gutgsell.

THANK YOU

On behalf of your St. Joseph Knights of Columbus we want to THANK ALL of our parish family members and their extended family and friends who took time to help in our food booth at the Sarpy County Fair again this year. Also, thanks to all who supported us by stopping by and eating at the booth. We can't thank the workers enough. No matter what the task you were asked to do, you did it (including learning to make charges on the tablet computers). Without you we CANNOT handle such a big undertaking! When you hear of all the good things that the Knights do, just remember you are also part of it because of your help and support.

Thanks again.

CALLING ALL JUNIOR CHOIR MEMBERS:

The first Religious Education mass is scheduled for Wed., Aug. 22. I'll need your help to sing for that mass. No need to practice, it will all be music you know. If you are new to the choir, please come forward to join us! Choir practices will begin on September 5 for mass on Sept. 9.

Thanks, everyone, looking forward to seeing you!
